

U.S. Higher Education Career Fair

Have you ever thought about your future? Have you ever asked yourself a question of what do you want be? Have you thought about how attending an American College or University could help you achieve these goals? EducationUSA in cooperation with the Information Resource Center will help you in receiving more information about some really popular majors and professions in the United States of America!

From 24 to 27 of March, 2015 EducationUSA organizes a U.S. Higher Education Career Fair event. Each day will be highlighted by two outstanding presenters who will share their experience of choosing both their educational and career path.

CAREER FAIR SCHEDULE

More details about the presentation schedule will be posted soon.
